Twenty Ninth Week in Ordinary Time

Parish Pastoral Council: Nominations for the new Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) are now welcome. These can be emailed to Fr. Damien at the parish email before Friday November 15th. You can put your own name forward or propose another parishioner (with their permission). Not all candidates proposed can be accepted onto the new PPC. It is hoped that candidates will come from across the parish and reflect its diversity. Candidates for consideration need to be baptised Catholics who actively participate in the life and the worship of the parish, who have a loving concern for the parish and are willing to be part of a parish leadership group for at least 4 years. For more on PPCs, go to "Our Parish" on the parish website and click on "Parish Pastoral Council".

MISSION SUNDAY: This weekend parishes worldwide celebrate World Mission Sunday. World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal to support overseas mission and missionaries. Missio Ireland is the Pope's official charity for overseas mission. Thank you for supporting in whatever way you can, and please remember it is more than an appeal for financial help. Missionaries also need our spiritual support.

Parish Collections: Last weekend - Parish: €4,331 (includes Dromin Blessing of Graves collection); Dues: €365. Sincere thanks for your ongoing support.

Parish List of the Dead: lists & envelopes are now available in our churches. These can be returned via the Mass collection, to the sacristy or to the parochial house. Ideally, lists ought to be returned by Friday November 1st. Mass is celebrated on each First Friday for all those on the parish list of the dead. Please note there is no requirement to include a monetary stipend in the envelopes.

Used Stamps: Continued thanks to all those who leave used stamps in the boxes at the back of our churches. In the last two weeks alone, over 300 stamps have been received.

Mass in St. Kevin's: a meeting to discuss the resumption of the celebration of Mass on a regular basis in St. Kevin's Church, Philipstown will be held in the church on Tuesday October 22nd at 7.30pm. All are welcome.
