Note re Sponsors / Godparents

Godparents help parents to bring up their children in the faith by their witness and prayers. To be a godparent is a privileged service in the Church and a special ministry. Church law (Canon Law #872-874) asks that a godparent be at least sixteen years of age and have received the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist). He or she should lead a life of faith in harmony with the duty undertaken. The godparent may not be one of the parents of the person being baptized. Only one godparent is required for Baptism and a maximum of two can be recorded in the baptismal record. Where there are two godparents, one must be male, and one must be female.

Consent for photography and Use in Parish Media

The birth of a child is a very special and joyous occasion. When parents decide to have their child baptised and received into the Catholic Church, we like to share this wonderful news with our community and members of our Church. We aim to do this using some or all of our parish media channels e.g., our Parish Facebook page, Parish Website and sometimes our YouTube channel.

In the community magazine “The Lannleire Review” (LLR), we also include your child’s name in the list of children baptised since the last issue.

We ask for your permission to capture or use a supplied photograph of you (parents/guardians) and your baby after he/she has received the Sacrament of Baptism to publish to our parish media channels. This post / entry will include your child’s name and your names as well. We also ask your permission to publish your child’s full name in the appropriate issue of LLR.

Please check the appropriate box to let us know if this is something you consent to:

Yes, I give Dunleer Parish permission to capture and post a photograph and/or my child’s name and our names as parents/guardians in the Dunleer Parish media channels as described in the above statement.
